

Kiwi Comedy Ltd. is the company behind Kim Potter, comedian, entertainer, MC. Kim has been writing and performing shows for over ten years, entertaining audiences the world over. From Europe to Asia, the United States and at home in New Zealand, Kim will go pretty much anywhere to make you laugh, and succeed.

Having worked as a professional musician for five years, Kim began working in comedy and circus, and is now internationally recognised and one of New Zealand's top entertainers, adding a refreshing spin to the New Zealand comedy scene.

Flexibility is integral to Kim's performance. He works for a diverse range of clients, and can thus tailor his show to different budgets, environments and expectations, to provide as much or as little as you require. His shows are all suitable for families, although they can be 'spiced up' for adult audiences.

Kiwi Comedy presents: Vinyl Burns and Kim Potter

Vinyl Burns (a fictional character)

A hit in 1972 Las Vegas, Vinyl's pop career has since dwindled but his enthusiasm hasn't. Vinyl has relocated his international playboy lifestyle to New Zealand so now you have the privilege of his effervescent company.

Vinyl is not quite the icon he believes himself to be (but don't let him know!), his style and grace need a bit of polishing, but his charm is still top notch.

Options for your function

- The Icebreaker: Vinyl will welcome guests as they arrive, posing as one of them. But as his personality (and ukulele) comes out, guests will realise that this is no ordinary kiwi bloke. Vinyl will impress, entertain and most of all put your guests at ease, giving them something (and someone) to talk about.
- The MC: Host for the evening, Vinyl will provide a focus and sense of continuity, allowing you to relax and enjoy the experience.
- Featured act: Vinyl will provide an action packed, comedy and stunt show tailored to suit your event. High skill, low stress.

Kim Potter

Kim's own show is a professional, clean-cut performance, which can be presented as a singular piece or a collection of short, stand-alone routines.

A naturally intuitive comedian, Kim is an expert at reading crowds and setting the mood for any occasion. Both local and international performances have seen Kim's skills rise to world-class level, winning him highly acclaimed performances at the Adelaide Fringe Festival, Festival Desastistes De La Rue, Vevey, Switzerland and an invitation to return to Glastonbury in 2009.

This show has been taken to 14 different countries, in 4 languages (including silence), to audiences of all ages.

Kim Potter is a dynamic entertainer who will work with you to create the perfect show for your audience.

When you book a Kiwi Comedy show, you're adding a world of entertainment experience to your event.
That's peace of mind.

"The wonderfully quirky character Vinyl Burns stimulated the WOW pre-show audience with fun and an enormous sense of humour. - it was fantastic"

Gabrielle Hervey, World of Wearable Art

"We hired Kim Potter to compeer the extremely busy ASB Gardens Magic Series (45,000 people over 22 nights) - Kim was a gem, responding to the ongoing critique necessary to tweak the show with humour and grace."
